

K-LOVE serves this community and region by providing listener friendly music without all the bad language heard in much of today's music. It's a positive alternative and influence for young people in a morally declining time. Forcing K-LOVE off the air due to LPFM stations would be an unfortunate mistake. Please don't let this happen.